Mission Project No. 6
Mary & Travis — AIM (Borderless)

Dear Salem United Methodist Church:

May 18, 2022 — Last week we finished Home-Based Orientation with AIM Canada, and we received our monthly support target. This is the amount we need to raise in order to return to France, and we are 75% of the way there!

Lord willing, we hope to return to France by mid-September of this year! Please pray with us, that God would provide for us in terms of financial and prayer support, as well as spiritual and relational preparation!

We are currently still in Calgary, and we plan to head to the U.S. for a two-month road trip at the beginning of July. We will be crossing much of the east coast and northern-mid-west. We don't have a schedule in place yet, but we are hoping to reconnect with as many friends, family and churches as possible!

Salem Plant & Food Sale a Huge Success

By Barbie Stottlemeyer

In spite of the cold, rainy, windy weather, and the loss of electricity for the better part of the day, the flower/vegetable plant and food sale was a huge success again this year.

Our day began at about 2:00 a.m. when the electricity went out in pretty much the entire Wolfsville community.

Many helpers gathered at the pavilion at 6:00 a.m. and the first thing we took care of was lighting the fireplace, which was a gathering place throughout the day. We then began unloading all the flowers and vegetable plants from the trailer and organized them on the tables.

At 8:00 a.m., to our delight, people began arriving and in no time the tables quickly began to empty.

Thankfully, many folks stopped by the church kitchen where pastries, water and sodas were being sold— and then, at about 12:30 the electricity came on and preparation of hot sandwiches, and coffee were made.

Again we want to thank everyone who came out to help setup, sell, and buy our flowers and plants, and those who provided food items and worked in the kitchen.

Not the weather, or the loss of electricity, dampened the enthusiasm and fellowship that we all enjoyed.

Message from the Pastor and Worship in June

■ By PASTOR ROBERT E. SNYDER

With June, spring comes to an end and summer arrives. We enjoy warm temperatures and daylight well into the evening. Flowers are blooming, puffy white clouds float by in the sky, and nature is full of her beauty for us to enjoy.

Hopefully, this summer will allow you a bit of a slower pace and some special times for rest and relaxation. Times of rest are important for our bodies and our spirits.

Along with graduation parties, Annual Conference will be held in early June. Then, in the final days of the month, a group will be attending the Creation Music Festival at Agape Farm in Shirleysburg, Pennsylvania.

I encourage you to keep up your attendance at weekly worship this summer. Staying in the habit really makes a positive difference in our daily lives.

Have a great June! God Bless.

—Pastor Bob

June 5 Pentecost Holy Communion “Spirit-Led” Romans 8:1-17

Romans 8:14 – “For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.”

Today is Pentecost, the day God formed the church and sent the Holy Spirit to dwell in the church and to lead us to be the people of God.

Are we a Spirit-led people? Do we allow the Holy Spirit to lead our lives?

As we journey through our days, do we search for how the Holy Spirit is present and at work in any given situation, and do we strive to discern what he would have us think and say and do?

Jesus faithfully delivered on his promise to send us the Spirit. Jesus knew we would need the Spirit to guide us. Are we making the most of what Jesus has sent to us?

Can we claim, “I am a Spirit-led person?” How might life be different if we were?

June 12 Trinity Sunday “It Works” John 16:5-16

John 16:13a – “When the Spirit of Truth comes, he will guide you into all truth.”

The word Trinity is not found in the Bible, but the explanation of the Trinity - One God in three persons - is found in our Bibles.

John 1:1b, “The Word was God” (God the Father). John 1:14, “The Word became flesh and lived among us” (God the Son). John 16:13a, “When the Spirit of Truth comes, he will guide you into all truth” (God the Holy Spirit).

The complete understanding of the Trinity is beyond our grasp, because we lack the intellect and the vocabulary to fully define God.

The Trinity has been our best attempt, and this understanding of God works for us as we trust in God who continues to create us, saves us, provides the example of how we are to live, and even remains present with us to guide us through life. The Trinity works.

June 19 Father’s Day “Essentials” Galatians 3:23-29

Galatians 3:26 – “For in Christ you are all children of God through faith.”

Many things tempt us to be divided: our personal worldview, our position on current social issues, the beliefs and practices of the different church denominations people attend.

Still, there is one person who can unite us: Jesus. When we agree to believe in Jesus, we are much better able to work through the things that divide us.

In the year 48 AD, the church was bitterly divided over admitting Gentiles into the church. What resolved it? The belief among Jews and Gentiles alike that Jesus Christ is Lord and Savior of all.

When we disagree on the issues of our day, it’s good to search for common ground; essentials upon which we can agree. Agreeing on Christ helps us work through our differences.

June 26 “Wonder Worker” Psalm 77:1-2, 11-20

Psalm 77:14 – “You are the God who works wonders; you have displayed your might among the peoples.”

Do you believe in a God who still works wonders?

God created the entire universe and keeps it in motion. God freed the Israelites from slavery in Egypt and led them to the Promised Land. God returned the people of Judah back home after they had been exiled in Babylon.

God came as Jesus to save us. God formed the church and sent the Holy Spirit which dwells in us. God is with us and guides us through life every day.

Some day God will take us by the hand and lead us to our eternal homes, and someday Jesus Christ will return a final time to restore the earth to perfection.

God has set all this in motion. God is active in the world and our lives. When is the last time you noticed God working wonders in the world? In your life? Look and see the God who still works wonders.

June's Delights

By Beverly J. Anderson

Roses cascade over fences,
Flowers bloom more brightly now;
Grass is greener, skies are bluer,
Snowy blossoms dress the bough.

June is shining on the hillsides,
Meadows, too, are fresh and fair;
Daisies, buttercups and clover
Catch gold sunbeams in their hair.

Dogwood shades the country pathways,
Birdsong fills the summer air;
Twinkling violets fringe the brooklets —
June's delights are everywhere!

Month of simple charms and beauty,
God's world's smiling, all in tune . . .
And I find my heart uplifted
By the loveliness of June.

Happiness is Little Things

By Viola Jacobson Berg

Happiness is little things,
A book, a cup of tea,
A card or letter in the mail,
Especially for me.

To see a rosebush in full bloom,
Be warmed by glowing sun;
To snuggle in a cozy bed
When the day is done.

A good night's rest, a brand new day,
The warmth of a friendly hand;
A note, a smile, a touch, a hug,
Someone to understand.

Days of hope and hours of love,
Savoring each minute;
Happiness is in your heart
If thankfulness is in it.

I believe that what we become depends on what our fathers teach us
at odd moments,

when they aren't really trying to teach us at all.
Therefore we are formed by little scraps of wisdom.

RECIPE

Savory Sweet Roast

INGREDIENTS:

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 3-4 lb. beef roast | 1 teaspoon prepared mustard |
| 1-2 Tablespoons olive oil | 2 teaspoons salt |
| 1 medium-sized onion, chopped | 1/4 cup vinegar |
| 10.75 oz. can cream of mushroom soup | 1/4 cup sugar |
| 1/2 cup water | 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce |

DIRECTIONS:

1. In a large skillet, brown roast on all sides in olive oil.
2. Meanwhile, in a mixing bowl, blend together all other ingredients.
3. When roast is browned, place in roasting pan. Pour sauce ingredients over meat.
4. Cover and bake at 350 degrees for 2 hours, or until tender.
5. Let meat stand for 20 minutes. Slice and serve with sauce. Makes 6-8 servings.

TIPS:

1. The sauce that the roast is cooked in makes a succulent gravy. Serve over the meat, and over potatoes, rice, or pasta, if you've made one of them as a go-along.
2. You may wish to cut potato wedges and place them on top of the meat before roasting it. You may also do the same with julienned carrot sticks. Either of those combinations gives a good meal all in one pan.

A Tribute to Fathers

By Iris W. Bray

Father labors for our needs,
Yet finds the time to spare
To build our hopes and share our dreams,
And still has time for prayer.

We marvel at his courage, which
Dissolves our doubts and fears.
Somehow, he gathers sunbeams
And he swaps them for our tears.

A father's love has patience
And understanding, too,
When we hurt or disappoint him
By the things we say or do.

His arms are always open
With a love that will not fail
And steadfast strength to lean upon
When the trials of life prevail.

For many years his presence
Is a blessing set apart;
Then, through cherished memories,
He lives on within the heart.

Flag Day is June 14

Your flag and my flag—
And oh, how much it holds!
Your land and my land
Secure within its folds!
Your heart and my heart
Beat quicker at the sight—
Sun-kissed and wind-tossed—
Red and blue and white.
The one flag, the flag for me and you
Glorified— the red & white & blue.

If Tomorrow Never Comes

Author Unknown

I knew it would be the last time I'd see you fall asleep, I would tuck you in more tightly and pray the Lord, your soul to keep.

If I knew it would be the last time I would see you walk out the door, I would give you a hug and kiss and call you back for one more.

If I knew it would be the last time I'd hear your voice lifted up in praise, I would videotape each action and word, so I could play them back day after day.

If I knew it would be the last time, I could spare an extra minute or two to stop and say "I love you," instead of assuming you would KNOW I do.

If I knew it would be the last time I would be there to share your day, well I'm sure you'll have so many more, so I can let just this one slip away.

For surely there's always tomorrow to make up for an oversight, and we always get a second chance to make everything right.

There will always be another day to say our "I love you's," and certainly there's another chance to say our "Anything I can do's?"

But just in case I might be wrong, and today is all I get, I'd like to say how much I love you and I hope we never forget.

Tomorrow is not promised to anyone, young or old alike, and today may be the last chance you get to hold your loved one tight.

So if you're waiting for tomorrow, why not do it today? For if tomorrow never comes, you'll surely regret the day, that you didn't take that extra time for a smile, a hug, or a kiss and you were too busy to grant someone, what turned out to be their one last wish.

So always hold them dear, take time to say "I'm sorry," "please forgive me," "thank you" or "it's okay." And if tomorrow never comes, you'll have no regrets about today.

Dennis saw this reading, framed and hanging at Blubaugh's Tire & Wheel Sales in Rouzerville, PA. Dennis said it really spoke to him and he asked for a copy. It apparently had spoken to other customers as well, as they already had copies available to give.

A Prayer to Remember that Joy is a Way of Life

Father, some days are just harder than others. Some days are rolling along just fine until we run smack into a wall we didn't see. But God, nothing surprises You. You see us, and You know our hearts. When the days are hard, and when they get flipped upside down, help us to remember the joy we have in Jesus.

Father, we praise You for Joy! Thank You for designing us to crave more of You, Lord, because it is there we find our hope. Our hope is in You! And You love us, Lord. You have good plans for our lives and are able to work all things for Your good ... even when we run smack into walls.

Father, You are the only One who can uphold the promise of "always," but today we vow to try. Develop in us a deep desire for Your joy. Fill us until we are overflowing, Father, with hope, peace, and joy. God, we want to experience life to the full, as Jesus died so that we could. But there is a very real enemy who intends to steal our joy.

Father don't ever let us forget that our joy is permanently sealed into the core of who we are in Christ. It cannot be stolen! Joy remains, and joy strengthens us when we are weak and weary. Joy helps us stagger to the freezer for a bag of frozen veggies after we run smack into a wall.

Father, thank You for all the ways You heal us and lead us out of bad days and hard seasons. It's so hard for us to see You clearly when we are in acute pain, God. Bless us with a clear vision of who You are and Whose we are. Embolden us to walk freely in joy, day by day, as we get closer to the number of our days and coming home to You in heaven.

Father, we trust in You and You alone. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Car Issue

A young boy had just gotten his driving permit. He asked his father, who was a minister, if they could discuss the use of the car. His father took him to his study and said to him, "You bring your grades up, study your Bible a little and get your hair cut and we'll talk about it."

After about a month, the boy came back and again asked his father if they could discuss use of the car. They again went to the father's study where his father said, "Son, I've been real proud of you. You have brought your grades up, you've studied your Bible diligently, but you didn't get your hair cut."

The young man waited a moment and replied, "You know Dad, I've been thinking about that. You know, Samson had long hair, Moses had long hair, Noah had long hair, and even Jesus had long hair!", to which his father replied, "Yes, you're right, and they also WALKED every where they went!"

Some thoughts to ponder . . .

A father teaches more by the example he lives than the advice he gives.

Go forward in life with a twinkle in your eye and a smile on your face, but with a great and strong purpose in your heart.

Judging a person does not define who they are — it defines who YOU are!
