Sandy Lewis & Marlene Young, Co-Choir Directors

Holy Week

The Salem choir will be presenting several musical offerings during Holy Week and Easter.

We will begin on Palm Sunday, April 2, with the traditional song entitled "The Palms" as we celebrate Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem.

Then on Good Friday we will sing "Written In Red" as we remember the great sacrifice that Jesus made for each of us.

Easter Sunday

On Easter Sunday, April 9, we will offer with great joy and celebration "Resurrection Day" and "Glorious Day/Living He Loved Me" arranged by Mary McDonald and popularized by the contemporary Christian group Casting Crowns.

Join us for all of these services which commemorate and celebrate our Risen Lord!

Message from the Pastor and Worship in April

■ By PASTOR ROBERT E. SNYDER

Our celebration of Lent nears its completion with the events we have scheduled for Holy Week: Palm Sunday, the Last Supper Drama on Maundy Thursday, Good Friday worship, and the Prayer Vigil on Holy Saturday.

For the children and families of the community, we'll also be having our Easter Egg Hunt on Holy Saturday.

I pray that your experience of restoration and renewal from God has been a blessing to you during the Season of Lent. Even with the great challenges that have confronted us this Lent, we know that our ultimate joy comes from our Lord, and nothing can take that away.

On Easter Sunday, we have the opportunity to celebrate our renewal as we give thanks to God for the resurrection of our Lord, Jesus the Christ.

We'll begin with the Community Easter Sunrise Service, at Salem this year, and end with our regular morning worship service.

The Easter Season will then continue over the 50 days that follow.

May God bless you greatly this upcoming Easter Season! —Pastor Bob

April 2
Palm Sunday
Holy Communion
"Back and Forth"
Matthew 21:1-11

Matthew 21:9 – "The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted, 'Hosanna to the Son of David!' 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!' 'Hosanna in the highest!'"

Crowds went ahead and behind. They claimed Jesus as the Son of David, another name for the Savior they had long awaited. They shouted out "Hosanna!" which means "save," an exclamation of praise. But when they discovered he hadn't come to defeat their oppressors by force, the crowds turned on Jesus and by weeks end were shouting, "Crucify him!"

We too, can go back and forth in our trust in Jesus. When things are good, it's easy to trust Jesus. When things get bad our trust can be tested. What if we walked closer with Jesus each day? Would our trust be more consistent? Would life be better?

April; 9
Easter Day
"It Works!"
Matthew 28:1-10

Matthew 28:5b-6a – "I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; he has risen just as he said."

Just as he said. These words testify to the fact that Jesus keeps his promises.

He promised that he would be resurrected, and he was. He promised to send the Holy Spirit, and he did. He promised to be with us always, and he is. Jesus keeps his promises.

Being a follower of Jesus Christ is not a faith that helps us feel-good but brings no real results. No, as one who believes in Jesus and strives to follow him and trust in him, we experience real help, real joy, real peace as we journey through life.

Christianity spread so fast, not because it was the newest fad, it spread so fast because of the results believers experienced. Life was better and people experienced true joy and hope as they trusted in the Lord. Being a follower of Jesus works!

April 16
"What's Next?"
Psalms 16

Psalms 16:5 – "Lord, you have assigned me my portion and my cup; you have made my lot secure."

I borrowed today's sermon title from the article on the back of today's worship bulletin. "What's next?"

It's a question we are dealing with right now. We can go off on our own trying to control for ourselves what's next. But that usually doesn't turn out very well. Left completely to our own devices we usually stumble and sometimes fall hard.

But there is another way and that way is to rely upon God as we move forward. To remain with God and listen for his voice as we live out each day.

God is with us and the best way to proceed is to remain with him as we consistently worship, pray, study the Bible, take Holy Communion, and serve together as a church family.

April 23
"He Died for Me!"
1 Peter 1:17-23

1 Peter 1:18-19 – "You were redeemed ... by the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect."

My parents sacrificed for me. When I was a teenager my dad commuted several hours each day to his job rather than move the family, just so I could remain in the same high school. Sometimes we'll hear of people that have made the ultimate sacrifice of giving up their life for another human being and we're amazed at these stories.

It humbles us greatly to think that our Almighty God sacrificed his one and only Son to die for the sins of all humanity.

This is what it took for us, for me, to be redeemed! When the reality of God's sacrifice really sinks in, we can't help but want to listen to God and follow him.

April 30
"Pursued."
Psalms 23

Psalms 23:4 – "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff they comfort me."

The word pursued can conjure up feelings of fear, as in "they pursued me to harm me." But this is not so in Verse 6 of Psalm 23, "Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life ..."

In this case, it is God who is following us, pursuing us, not to do harm but to seek our highest good. God isn't one to stand by idly and just watch us flounder. God comes to us, even pursues us, to offer his help. That's true today, tomorrow, and always.

The Resurrection

By M. S. Lowndes

We hold so close to our hearts
The cross where Jesus died,
But so much more than the blood-stained cross
Is that Jesus came back to life.

The stone's been rolled away;
The tomb lay open and bare —
They looked for Him, and then the angel said
That He is no longer here.

Oh what joy they must have felt
To see Him just once more,
To eat with Him, to drink with Him,
To receive Him back as Lord.

So much did He accomplish
Through His death upon the cross
And in His rising from the dead,
He reconciled us back to God.

Nothing else could bridge the gap
That sin had wrenched apart —
Now we can freely go to God
And receive Christ in our hearts.

Traveling on my Knees

Last night I took a journey to a land across the sea.
I didn't go by ship or plane, I traveled on my knees.
I saw so many people there, in bondage to their sins.
And Jesus told me I should go, that there were souls to mend.

But I said, "Jesus, I can't go to lands across the seas"
He answered quickly, "Yes, you can-- by traveling on your knees."
He said, "You pray, I'll meet the need, you call, and I will hear.

It's up to you to be concerned for lost souls far and near."

And so I did, I knelt in prayer, gave up some hours
of ease,
And with the Savior by my side I traveled on my knees.

As I prayed on, I saw souls saved, and twisted
persons healed,
I saw God's workers' strength renewed while laboring on the field.

I said, "Yes, Lord, I'll take the job, Your heart I want to please, I'll heed your call and swiftly go
By traveling on my knees."

RECIPE

Frosted Cashew Cookies

INGREDIENTS:

Cookies

- 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1/2 cup butter, softened
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 egg
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 3/4 teaspoon baking powder
- 3/4 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/3 cup sour cream

- 3/4 cup coarsely chopped salted cashews

Frosting

- 1/2 cup butter (do not use margarine)
- 2 cups powdered sugar
- 3 tablespoons half-and-half or milk
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla

DIRECTIONS:

1. Heat oven to 375 degrees. Lightly grease cookie sheets. In large bowl, combine brown sugar and 1/2 cup butter; beat until light and fluffy. Add 1/2 teaspoon vanilla and egg; blend well. Add flour, baking powder, baking soda and sour cream; mix well. Stir in cashews. Drop dough by rounded teaspoonfuls 2 inches apart onto greased cookie sheets.
2. Bake at 375 degrees for 8 to 10 minutes or until golden brown. Immediately remove from cookie sheets. Cool 15 minutes or until completely cooled.
3. Meanwhile, heat 1/2 cup butter in medium saucepan over medium heat until light golden brown. Remove from heat. Stir in powdered sugar, half-and-half and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla; beat until smooth. Frost cooled cookies.

Makes 4 dozen cookies.

Barbie Stottlemeyer made these cookies for the "Bee-lievers" Women's Group recipe exchange.

Special Disaffiliation Statement

66 YES - 79%
18 NO - 21%
84 Total - 100%

Statement from the Salem Church Council regarding the March 19, 2023, Church Conference vote:

On March 19, 2023, the members of Salem United Methodist Church in Wolfsville, Maryland, voted to disaffiliate from the United Methodist Church (UMC). The results of the vote were 79% in favor of disaffiliation and 21% against disaffiliation. A 2/3 majority was required to pass.

This vote was the culmination of a lengthy discernment process by the congregation that included Bible study, prayer, conversation, and extensive research outlining the steps and costs necessary for Salem to disaffiliate from the UMC.

The United Methodist Church has been wrestling with differing perspectives on theological and social issues since its founding in 1968.

The denomination's most recent legislative session, known as General Conference, resulted in a pathway for local UMC churches to exit the denomination, if certain conditions are met, over matters of conscience resulting from actions or inactions taken by the UMC.

Going forward, Salem intends to operate as an independent church and continue its mission to serve the greater Wolfsville area by proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ, helping each other grow in faith, and serving those in need in our congregation, community and the world.

The next step in the disaffiliation process is for Salem's vote to be approved by the Annual Conference of the Baltimore-Washington Conference of the United Methodist Church at its May 31—June 3, 2023 meeting. Salem has met all of the conditions outlined by the UMC for disaffiliation.

More news and details will be announced by the Church Council as the disaffiliation transition process unfolds.

Puppets Appear in Worship at Salem

February 26, 2023 — On this Sunday, the children's message included a puppet play titled "J-O-Y in Jesus."

Cheyenne and Shelby Leatherman spoke the script and worked the puppets. It was their first time doing this and they really enjoyed it.

In the puppet story, the puppets were working on a crossword puzzle. The first word they needed was a 5-letter word that is the name of the most important book in the world. The first thing that came to mind was Holy Bible, but that is more than 5 letters. So, they try B-I-B-L-E and it fits.

The next word they need is a 3-letter word for something Christians have all the time. After pondering for some time, they remember their Sunday School teacher telling them about joy. J-O-Y — 3 letters. It fits.

But, can that be right? How can anyone have joy all the time? We all have bad days once in a while. But, they think more about that Sunday School lesson when they were taught that if we have Jesus in our lives we can have joy, even when we have problems... because Jesus is always there to help us. Good lesson.

At the end of the puppet play, Bill Burrier, who was leading worship while Pastor Bob was on vacation, added some additional thoughts on joy.

As we live our lives as Christians, we should follow the J-O-Y principle which is: "J" for Jesus first, "O" for others second, and "Y" for yourself last. (See the poster in the photo.) A good principle to live by. It is true wisdom from God.

Salem Mission Project No. 8

Society of St. Andrew - Potato Project

Raising awareness, educating participants, and inspiring people to change their habits are vital steps in preventing food waste and ending hunger.

Last year, 800+ farmers donated over 80 million servings of fresh food through The Society of St. Andrew (SoSA) reaching an astounding 1,800+ hunger relief organizations, which helped strategically deliver that food to millions of hungry people here in the United States.

Those numbers point to a successful year. Yet, they are incomplete. Numbers alone leave out stories of lives changed every day.

In the field of hunger relief, success is measured in a variety of ways. Some prefer to discuss impact solely with quantitative metrics, dollars raised, pounds of food rescued, and volunteers deployed. Others focus on more abstract factors that require a story, like perspectives changed, opportunities created, and problems prevented.

It's important to quantify the nutrition and calories shared with a hungry family. However, it's also relevant to recognize the feeling a parent had when they received food—at no cost to them—when they thought all hope was lost.

In countless ways and countless places, you made a difference. You affected change. Your impact was visible in the form of food shared with families in great need. It was also shown as awareness raised, new volunteers signed up, and relationships established.

In preparation for a new gleaning season, factors that matter to us include the joy that farmers feel in sharing what they have; the number of volunteers signed up and ready to be called upon both returning volunteers and new ones, eager to glean for the fresh food.

As another season begins, we humbly celebrate the past year, acutely aware millions of families struggle today with hunger and food insecurity—unsure of where to find their next meal. With your help, 2023 will also be a year of success as we work to bring people together to harvest and share healthy food.

Extracted from Society of St. Andrew Quarterly Report, No. 1, 2023.

Salem provides a minimum of $25 each month to the Society of St. Andrew.

Salem’s Community Plant Sale set for Saturday, May 13th

Again this year, Barbie Stottlemeyer will be traveling to Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, with her family, to hand-select the beautiful flowers to be sold at Salem’s Plant Sale on Saturday, May 13th, at Salem’s pavilion, beginning at 8 a.m. In addition to a large selection of flowers, garden plants will also be available.

Easter Flowers

There will be no orders for Easter flowers. Barbie Stottlemeyer, who faithfully takes care of the altar flowers every week, will be purchasing an assortment of Easter flowers to adorn the sanctuary.

During the winter months, altar flowers are purchased from Roostervane Gardens in Funkstown. Barbie picks up the arrangements and brings them to the church.
