Salem Mission Project No. 4

Christ Cream Ministry (Tim Leber)

NEW FOR 2024 — Salem's Church Council recently added a new mission project for 2024, Tim Leber's Christ Cream Ministry.

Mr. Leber, a retired Middletown High School teacher, gives out free ice cream from his ice cream truck, with a prayer. He goes wherever invited, church events, youth activities, family reunions, etc.

When Tim was advised Salem had added his ministry as a mission project, he wrote a "Thank You" saying, "Thanks to all of you at Salem for daily shining for Jesus! Your support of the Christ Cream Ministry is greatly appreciated! Please let me know any time you'd like ice creams and prayers for any of your events. Wishing all of God's blessings to all of you at Salem! With much love and gratitude, — Tim Leber

Salem will provide $50 monthly to this ministry.

Come Grow With Us

9 AM Worship • 10:15 AM Bible Study

Salem Church is growing. The Lord has blessed our decision to disaffiliate from the United Methodist Church in September 2023 and become an independent, non-denominational congregation following traditional Christian values.

We are excited to share what God has been doing through the ministry of Salem Community Church.

At a recent Church Council meeting, Pastor Neil shared the blessing of increased attendance at worship, now averaging 106 and growing.

INSPIRATIONAL Reading

February

By Garnett Ann Schultz

The waiting time — a quiet world
When snow is all about,
No grass of green, no singing birds,
No warmth without a doubt,
It surely is the time between
With winter dreams to share,
A frosty morn, an evening cool,
And snowflakes everywhere.

February sometimes lends
A touch of springtime charms,
A bit of magic, gentle winds
To catch with outstretched arms,
A different kind of winter world
With oft a bit of sun,
As patiently we watch and wait
For special winter fun.

A time between — and yet so dear.
Bright hopes of fall just past
While looking forward to the spring
Amidst the winter's blast,
For February is a span;
It tells of things to be,
A bridge connecting fall and spring
We travel happily.

A February Snow

By Garnett Ann Schultz

The sun shone through a snowy sky
And drifts were mounting white and high;
Just yesterday it all began —
A wondrous February Plan:
God sent white flakes, all soft and dear
To surely thrill and bless us here.

It lasted far into the night,
A beautiful and charming sight —
Each branch and tree, a rich design,
A forming bit of wintertime,
With fields and hills and country lanes
All bright and sparkling once again.

Then as the dawn rose in the east,
The sun broke through, the snow had ceased —
A world of pleasant sweet surprise,
A fairyland before our eyes.
All nature smiled, the world did glow —
God sent a February snow.

To love is to find pleasure
In the happiness of the person loved.

Valentines

By Elizabeth Rooney

The world's a valentine from God,
More intricate than lace.
Sweeter than roses,
Fragrant with His grace.
Look at it closely,
Read the words of love
He's written over, under,
Through and through.
Then giving this loving God
Your heart, your love
So He can have a valentine
From you.

Eternal Valentine

By Dan A. Hoover

Did you know each passing minute
Makes me love you more and more?
How I listen through the hours
For your footsteps at the door.
If, because life is so busy,
I have not renewed my vow,
Let me, on this day of lovers,
Do it most sincerely now.

Love cannot be forced;
Love cannot be coaxed and teased.
It comes out of Heaven,
Unasked and unsought.

Do We Dare

By Tom Kolb, Frederick, MD

Do we dare to be a Christian
And devote our life to God,
When there's sin and grave temptation
On every path we trod.
Do we dare to tell the story
Of a God that sets us free,
When there are idols all around us
For everyone to see.
Do we dare to be quite different
From the busy passing throng,
And always know the difference
Between what's right and wrong.
Do we dare to stand for something
In a world of many creeds,
And willing to be Christian
When we see our brother's needs.

Message from the Pastor and Worship in February

■ By PASTOR NEIL SUDERS

What's Up with Ash Wednesday?

February 14th, 2024, is not just Valentine's Day. It is also Ash Wednesday. Some people might be prone to ask, "What is Ash Wednesday, exactly?" or "Why is Ash Wednesday significant?"

Ash Wednesday is the day before the Lent season, and it is a day that is marked by solemn mourning and dedication to forego some part of people's lives for the period that leads up to Easter.

The history of Ash Wednesday is linked to Pope Gregory in the 11th century. The church began to smear a mixture of ash and olive oil onto the forehead, in the sign of a cross, to show repentance.

The practice of physical ashes, as part of the tradition, began to really gain momentum around 1970. Adherents to Ash Wednesday point back to the third verse of Daniel 9, where Daniel put on sackcloth and sat in ashes to pray for God's will.

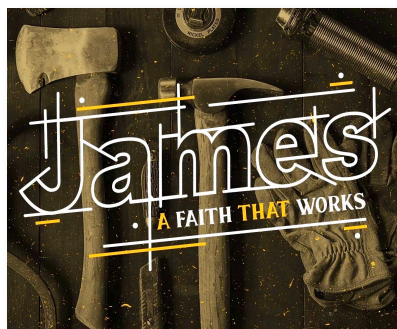

Ash Wednesday is a tradition of the liturgical "high church" (e.g., Catholics, Methodists, Lutherans, Episcopalians, and Presbyterians). Is it right for Salem Community Church? Let us consider some points of clarification.

First, while the concept of sackcloth and ashes does appear in Scripture, their occurrences are limited to the Old Testament, where the people were under the Law of Moses instead of under grace.

A second consideration is that Jesus fasted and prayed, yet he never put on ashes, nor sat in ashes.

Finally, nowhere in the New Testament writing of the apostles do we find a mandate to the church to include the practice of ashes in the church services.

Considering this evidence, Salem

Community Church will not be continuing the practice of smearing the figure of the cross on the forehead with ashes.

At the risk of seeming inconsistent, I am okay with the observation of Lent. While the term "Lent" does not appear in the Bible, there are many examples of forty-day periods of fasting, prayer, and intimate fellowship with God.

The most glaring example was when Jesus, Himself, fasted for forty days before being tempted in the wilderness.

Many believers give up certain aspects of their lives for Lent to dedicate themselves more seriously to their prayer and devotional life.

Preparation Service Wednesday, February 14, 7:00 p.m.

Considering that, we will be having a Preparation Service, in lieu of Ash Wednesday, on February 14, at 7:00 p.m.

We will be preparing our hearts for the season of the year leading up to the highlight of the Christian year; namely, Easter.

Our Preparation Service will involve singing, praying, and worship through the Word of God. It will be both sober yet celebratory. I hope to see many of you here as we prepare our hearts for greater spiritual victory ahead.

In Christ, —Pastor Neil

James 2:14-26

"The Whole Faith Versus Works Debate"

Was Paul correct when he wrote that we are saved by grace, through faith and NOT BY WORKS?! Or was James right when he wrote that saving faith is faith that works? Better yet, could they BOTH be right? We will settle the debate from James' perspective.

February 11, 2024

James 3:1-12

"Trash-Talking and the 'Big Game'"

There will be a football game televised on this day. It will be the biggest game of the year. Without a doubt, it will be the culmination of a lot of trash talking between the two teams. Sadly, there is a lot of trash talking in churches across the country. How should we, as Christians, talk to each other? James addressed that in his letter, and we will look at his answer.

February 14, 2024 (Wednesday)

1 Peter 1:13-16

Preparation Service

On the eve of the Lent season, we consider Peter's mandate to be self-controlled and holy. As we contemplate resigning some luxury item(s) between this date and Easter, we must prepare ourselves for the journey of a closer walk with Jesus.

February 18, 2024

James 3:13-18

"The Wisdom of Solomon"

James wrote that there are two types of wisdom; that which is from above and that which is below. In other words, he referred to divine wisdom and earthly wisdom. We will look more closely at what distinguishes the two from each other.

February 25, 2024

James 4:1-10

"The Power of True Humility"

The key to successful relationships is true humility. While the world emphasizes self-exaltation and personal pursuits, God wants us to be truly humble so that we can have relationships that honor and glorify Him.

James wrote that if we humble ourselves, God will lift us up. I do not know about you, but I would rather have God lift me up than lifting myself up!

New Opportunities

New Worship Committee

A new committee is forming to partner with the Pastor in planning worship and special services throughout the year. The committee will meet quarterly. If you are interested in serving, please contact Pastor Neil at the church office (301-293-1616).

Young Adult Ministry is Forming

There will be a new ministry for young adults here at Salem Community Church. The ministry will be geared to post high school graduates to thirty-somethings.

Whether you are single, in a relationship, living at home, living on your own, whether you have children or don't, this ministry is for you.

We will be offering a Sunday school class, taught by Pastor Neil, every Sunday and occasional activities.

For any questions, please direct them to Pastor Neil or Misty. The class will begin the first Sunday of the new quarter, which will be March 3, 2024. Class location will be announced later.

February — A Month of Love

February is the month of love. Valentine's Day gets many people thinking of the person they care most about, and how best to express their love to that one.

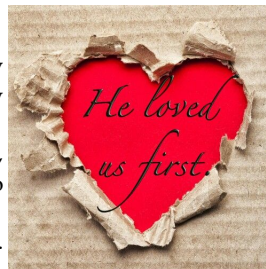

Flowers are bought by the truckload. Roses are given, dozens at a time. Hallmark makes a fortune when we all go out to find the perfect card for the one we love.

It's a great thing when it really is true love that lasts forever. But lots of this love celebration will be forgotten not much longer after the roses wilt.

There seems to be less and less real love to celebrate. Thank God for those love relationships that are real and last a long time. But even those won't last forever, and even the best relationships have their limitations.

Call It Amazing Love

But there is one relationship that has no limits and will last forever. Call it amazing love! Wonder how it could ever be? But it's true, straight from the throne of our precious Savior, Jesus Christ. The only way we will be able to celebrate amazing love — true and ever-lasting love — is to know God through His Son Jesus Christ.

The Salem January Challenge

At the beginning of January, Pastor Neil challenged the Salem congregation to read Proverbs— 31 chapters, one chapter per day for the 31 days of January.

Salem’s Facebook page, every day, invites folks to post the verse that spoke to them each day. Here is the invitation for Day 22: “It’s Day 22 of our Pursue Wisdom challenge! We’re reading a chapter of Proverbs each day in January. What passage from Chapter Twenty-two spoke to you today?”

Every day, Salem folks are posting the verse or sometimes verses, that are meaningful to them. Michael Burrier manages Salem’s Facebook page.

For we were saved in this hope, but hope that is seen is not hope; for why does one still hope for what he sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with perseverance. —Romans 8:24-25 (NKJV)

Birds used to swarm the five feeders outside my office windows year-round. I loved the happy distraction from deep and draining thoughts. Sometimes I took a break, grabbed my bird book, and attempted to identify new fluttering beauties.

Then, all the birds vanished. A week passed . . . a month . . . a second month . . . no birds. I missed my flying friends. I tried everything to entice them back— tossing seed on the ground, washing the feeders in vinegar and water, dumping the old seed and replacing it with fresh. Nothing worked. Still, I hoped and even prayed for their return.

Hope involves a strong desire for something, attached to an expectation of obtaining it. As a believer, I hope for the return of Jesus. The Bible says: “Behold, He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even they who pierced Him.” (Revelation 1:7 NKJV)

As a last effort, I purchased a different brand of birdseed and filled the feeders at work. A few chickadees and nuthatches appeared in the yard and glided over for a snack. A tufted titmouse, a cardinal, and a family of sparrows followed. Though I can’t see Jesus yet, I eagerly await the day my eyes will behold Him— the Maker of the birds and the Creator of the universe.

Faith Step: If you’re not already a bird-watcher, become one for a week. Try to spot and identify various kinds of birds. Allow them to remind you of the hope you have for Jesus’ return. —Becky Alexander

MORE NEWS & NOTES

Ladies Bible Study at Salem

Ladies Bible Study started a new study on Monday January 8th, 6:30 pm.

The new study is "Messy People" Life Lessons from Imperfect Biblical Heroes by Jennifer Cowart.

We invite you to join us for fellowship, support and growing in your walk with God. The study is in person and also on zoom. Please contact Debbie Irons for any questions at 301-271-7012.

God can turn your messy life into a masterpiece.

Every life gets messy at times. Sometimes these messes are literal, like a house that would be easier to condemn than to clean. But sometimes they are intangible messes such as illness, conflict, depression, abuse, bankruptcy, divorce, and job loss. And these messes can be painful, hurting our hearts and our homes. But as we see in the Bible, God loves to use messy people!

In this study, we will dig into the lives of Biblical heroes who were messy people just like us but who were used by God in powerful ways. Together we will examine the stories of five wonderful but messy people and one messy parable character: Rahab, the Prodigal Son, Josiah, Mary, David, and Daniel. From their stories, we will learn how God can use broken people, restore damaged hearts and relationships, give us power to handle our critics, and help us deal with the hard moments of life.

Along the way we’ll discover that we don’t have to just endure messy lives but can actually learn to thrive with God’s guidance and help. In the hands of God, our messes can become His masterpieces!

WRONG OR RIGHT

An unbeliever sneered, "So many things in the world are made wrong.

Look at that little acorn on that big tree and that big pumpkin on that little vine!

"People talk about an all-wise God at the head of this universe. Now if I had been doing it, I would have put that acorn on the vine, and the pumpkin on the oak."

Just then an acorn fell and hit him on the head.

Some thoughts to ponder . . .

You may be only one person in the world, but you may also be the world to one person.

A truly happy person is one who can enjoy the scenery on a detour.

Deal with the faults of others as gently as with your own.

The secret of contentment is knowing how to enjoy what you have and be able to lose all desire for things beyond your reach.
